The Central Indiana Clinical Biochemistry Forum Scholarship Program

DESCRIPTION

The Central Indiana Clinical Biochemistry Forum was established in 1972 to provide periodic continuing education opportunities for Clinical Laboratory Scientists/Medical Technologists. The Central Indiana Clinical Biochemistry Forum (CICBF) Scholarship Fund was established in 1988 to promote the study of Clinical Laboratory Science/Medical Technology. The fund is available for students who are enrolled in an approved Clinical Laboratory Science/Medical Technology Program in the State of Indiana. The CICBF disbanded in 2002 and their funds were entrusted to the Indiana Society for Clinical Laboratory Science (ISCLS) for future scholarship distribution.

Four scholarship awards of $500.00 each will be made to eligible students for the academic year in which they are a student in good standing in an approved MT/MLT Program. Of the four scholarships, three will be awarded to MT students and one will be awarded to a MLT student.

ELIGIBILITY TO APPLY

Any student accepted into an approved MT/MLT program, who meets the requirements listed below may apply.

1. Academic Achievement Scholarship: One scholarship will be awarded to a MT student each year. Those who apply must have a minimum GPA of 3.75 based on a 4.0 scale, or a GPA of 5.75 based on a 6.0 scale. Academic achievement is the only requirement for this scholarship. A transcript of all college work completed must be submitted with the application.
2. Financial Need/Academic Achievement Scholarship: Two scholarships will be awarded to MT Students each year and one scholarship will be awarded to an MLT Student each year. Those who apply must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 Based on a 4.0 scale (or a GPA of 5.0 – based on a 6.0 scale) and must also demonstrate financial need as indicated below:
  - A. Economically Disadvantaged: Awards may be made to economically disadvantaged students, who without financial assistance might be deprived of the opportunity of completing the professional Medical Technology Program.
  - B. Financial Crisis: Awards may be made to students who can demonstrate that a precipitous change has occurred in their financial situation, e.g., parents out of work, loss of part-time job, medical or other emergency.
  - c. A transcript of all college work completed must be submitted with the application.
